

Green quest

Get active with friends and spot the innovative and efficient ways your community is becoming more sustainable!

Walk, cycle, scoot or skateboard around your local area. Take photos/videos or write/draw the sustainable things that people or organisations are doing.

Ask your friends and family what they are doing to help. Award 1 point for each sustainable activity you spot and 2 points if it is something you are involved in. How many points can you earn?

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Recycling | <input type="checkbox"/> Tree planting |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Energy-saving streetlights | <input type="checkbox"/> People shopping in charity shops |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Buildings with solar panels | <input type="checkbox"/> Clothing banks |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Heat pumps | <input type="checkbox"/> Repairing clothes, furniture or electrical items rather than buying new ones. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> People cycling | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> People walking | |

Top tips!

This activity can be carried out in school time or as a homework challenge. If sending home, print out with tips for parents from British Gas:

British Gas – Energy saving tips

